UPDATE

Arrest in Connection with Fatal Motor Vehicle Crash

Manchester Police have charged 35-year-old Ailadi Abreu of New Hampshire in connection with a fatal accident that occurred on March 23, 2023.

On the above mentioned date, Manchester Police responded to the area of Granite St and Route 293 for a report of a motor vehicle crash. Arriving officers discovered the crash involved a black 2012 Acura TL and a black 2019 BMW X7.

Through the course of the investigation, it was determined that Abreu, who was driving the Acura, came off the 293 off ramp at a high rate of speed, attempted to make a left hand turn, and hit the BMW head on. Abreu's passenger, 32-year-old Michael Shattuck of Manchester was pronounced deceased at the scene. Abreu suffered serious injuries and was taken to an area hospital.

The driver of the BMW was identified as a 64-year-old female from Manchester, who sustained minor injuries as a result of the crash.

Abreu was charged with Manslaughter, Negligent Homicide, and 2 counts of Reckless Conduct. She was booked in absentia, as she is still in the hospital. Her arraignment today was via video. No booking photo is available at this time.
